DickUpset With Obama, Americans Say They Don't Care About Politics The U.S. public is in a sour mood about politics and its government, and they seem to have no interest in having a voice on the presidential election in November. A new Wall Street Journal/NBC News poll finds that nearly 7 in 10 Americans disapprove of the way President Obama and congressional Republicans are handling the economy. When it comes to the Iraq war, 61 percent of those polled said they disapprove of the way Mr. Obama and his allies are handling the conflict. By contrast, only 35 percent of those surveyed said they approve of the way congressional Republicans are handling the war. The president's approval rating also fell to 42
