Hello everybody, I am trying to download drivers from Asus for windows 10 that I have and the driver for this device is not available in the list. My problem is that this device is on the lists, but the driver is not in the list. I have tried to search for it, but none of the softwares could recognize it. So I am wondering if it is just not available or if I made a mistake. (Please note that I am a new at downloading driver.) A: I found out how to solve my problem. I went to the Asus website and downloaded the driver that is for windows 8.1 instead of 10. It is a 32 bit software so if you have a 64 bit windows you can download the other one.
