What is Karma? | Beyond Personal Experience In this clip of Beyond Personal Experience, the creator of BeyondHuman puts forward 3 alternative theories, 1st is Psycho Biochemistry. Human is a living creature and has a chemistry all its own. It has a technology called Hologram, which has a technology of its own. The Hologram is connected to the Mind or the Brain, which has a conscious and a subconscious level. The 2nd theory is Consciousness. Human being is a big 'I' and is a conscious being. It can choose its actions. By studying personal experiences we can find out the techniques to control the thinking process. The 3rd theory is The HiddenSelf. The human is like an onion. Karma Chameleon In this video I will talk about some of the early information I received in regards to when my spiritual path started, where it took me, what it is like on the journey, things that have happened along the way, what I am now, and where I plan to go in the future. There will be a lot of fun facts and stories that will make you wonder- Why do I look and sound like this? Where did this start? What happened to start me on this journey? Why did I decide to take the path that all the people told me I couldn't do? All of these things are answered in 2d92ce491b
