There are thousands of designs and unique effects that you can use to enhance your slide presentations. Easy to use and it is the ultimate tool for designing PowerPoint presentations. You can create numerous PowerPoint presentations at once, the most popular being handouts, business, holiday, meeting and promotional presentations. You can start a new presentation and insert slide as many times as you like. You can add two types of slides: - Basic slides: Includes text, images and videos. - Toolbox: Includes a variety of items, like shapes, border, icon, text, video, picture, and many more. If you are a newbie, it is recommended that you start with the basic slides, because they are the easiest to use. There are three main styles of slide you can choose from: - Text: You can insert text into the slide. If you enter the full text you will create a title for the slide. - Picture: You can insert pictures of any size into the slide. - Video: You can insert videos of any size into the slide. There is also an option to make your slide background transparent. You can find a detailed list of the many available colors by clicking on the link in the title bar. Once you have created a slide, you can edit it and apply multiple effects to it. You can even add a background image. You can use up to five settings to modify the slide's appearance. You can set a color, add an effect, change the font, type, size and alignment. You can then adjust the text, as well as the background, colors and effects. You can also select the effect based on a size and/or color. There are thousands of different designs and unique effects that you can use to enhance your slide presentations. Slide Effect (Final 2022)

Slide Effect is an application that helps you to create and edit virtual presentations. It includes a lot of features and easy to use interface that enables you to: - Add slides with all the tools available in PowerPoint; - Insert images, videos, audio, Flash files and Microsoft Office documents; - Use the undo function; - Use the time settings; - Preview your presentation; - Set the animation type, start and end effect, animation type and animation speed; - Rotate, mirror, zoom in, and zoom out items; - Have 3D pictures and slides; - Use the random effect; - Use of shadows and reflections; - Insert text and change its color, material and position; - Use of text effects, border and transparency; - Choose a background color for your slides. System Requirements: - 1.0 GB of free hard disk space - 4 GB of RAM - Pentium processor (1 GHz) - Windows XP/Vista/7 - .Net Framework 3.5 You can use Slide Effect to create presentations. Its interface is elegant, clean and easy to navigate through. You can start a new presentation by adding slides. They can either be blank or with titles, plain or 3D text, images and videos. All you have to do is double-click a field to insert an item (e.g. image or video), as well as edit it (in case it's text). When it comes to videos, you can select a start and end effect, animation type and border. But you can also enable looping mode, shadows and reflection. The image editing process is quite similar to the aforementioned one and you can add as many pictures as you'd like. Regarding text, you can select the color, material and position, as well as configure time settings (e.g. display on click). In addition, you can insert a PowerPoint presentation, use the undo and redo functions, set random transitions, preview the presentation and configure project settings (e.g. stop when the slideshow ends, wait for the Space key after loading, set the background color, change aspect ratio). Slide Effect takes up a very high amount of system resources, has a comprehensive help file with snapshots for all user levels, supports keyboard shortcuts and didn't freeze, crash or display errors during our tests. The bottom line is that Slide Effect is an excellent program for creating and designing virtual presentations and
