Heidi: Directed by Alain Gsponer. Anouk Steffen, Anna Schinz, Lilian Naef, Bruno Ganz. The story of a young girl who lives in the Swiss Alps with her goat. Everything would be fine if she was not the daughter of a priest. Yes, and the goat has its own strange character, she does not like people, she does not see anyone but herself. But this did not stop the heroine from falling in love. A very interesting story, but the film is not for fans of long and detailed stories like "how I spent my summer." This is a drama that runs for almost two hours. It seems to me that it is not just so stretched, it has many meanings. And they are all like in a fairy tale - you just have to catch it.
